

BI REGIONAL MEETING
April 25, 2007
ENEACPE

John Develder addressed the meeting with his desire to put Bob Nace name for nomination for the Distinguished Service Award. Jo Clare offered his nomination for the Distinguish Service Award. Discussion followed. The Regional Directors will get the information out to the members. Voted was taken. It was approved unanimously.

Beth gave appreciation for the Planning Committee for the hard work and a job well done. Discussion followed on the importance of keeping the meeting as a Bi-Regional effort. The combination of SOS and the annual meeting may have effected Northeast people being here. John Pearson thought combining the meetings help with the travel, particularly the Maine contingency. Kathleen Davis wondered if there was a conflict if the Northeast holds another meeting prior to the Regional Meeting in the Spring. Patrick McCoy said that conversation has occurred over this at the Northeast meeting. David Stickly posed the question, will moving the regional meeting to the fall impacted the attendance? It was agreed that keeping the meeting Bi Regional is important and desired.

There was agreement that a combination of the two regions Listserve would be helpful in the sharing of information, to include the Newsletter as well.

Carolyn Sawyerr and Michele DeCoste have offered to be in charge of the Bi Regional Meeting next year. They are proposing Relational Cultural Theory; helping to make connections in our supervisory work. Maureen Walker would be a possible keynote speaker.

Nancy Anderson suggested that the topic be on Addiction. Nancy, Patrick McCoy, Martin Montonye and Steve Dutton are now serving on the National Task Force for Addiction, which the emphasis is to get this issue dealt with on the regional level. Possible speaker would be James Nelson as the keynote speaker Addiction and Supervision.

John Pearson announced that Nov. 4-5 for the next Seminar on Supervision.

Kitty Garlid recommended that we be intentional about bringing in women of color as a keynote speakers.

The Planning Committee will move ahead with plans to make the next Bi-Regional Meeting be on Connection and Culture. The year following will on Addiction.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30 am
